In the wake of Trebek's passing, the question on everyone's mind is: who will be the new host of Jeopardy?

Several names have been floated as potential replacements, each with their own unique strengths and weaknesses. Here are some of the top contenders who could potentially fill Trebek's shoes:

Ken Jennings

Ken Jennings is a Jeopardy legend, having won 74 consecutive games in 2004 and holding the record for the highest single-game winnings ($2.52 million). He currently serves as a consulting producer on Jeopardy and has guest-hosted several episodes since Trebek's passing.

Jennings has a deep understanding of the game and a natural rapport with the contestants. He is also a talented writer and speaker, with a sharp wit and a knack for storytelling. However, some critics argue that his long association with Jeopardy could make him too predictable.
